SAHETI SCHOOL

PRE-PRIMARY AND PLAYSCHOOL
Policy on Code of Conduct

It is the parent's responsibility to ensure that they are familiar with the rules and regulations.
These rules should be explained to their child/children from time to time in an age-appropriate manner.

HELLENISM

- Pupils must acknowledge and respect the Greek ethos of the school and the values of Hellenism to which SAHETI subscribes.
- Pupils are expected to respect the Greek language and culture.
- Pupils must approach the subject with a positive attitude and make every effort to perform according to their ability.
- Pupils are encouraged to attend days of Greek celebration, e.g. Greek National Day and OXI Day.

CONDUCT

- Pupils must respect the dignity, individuality and diversity of educators, auxiliary staff, scholars and visitors to the school;
- Pupils must respect, contribute and fulfil SAHETI'S philosophy as outlined in the mission statement;
- Pupils are expected to behave in a courteous, respectful manner at all times (this includes outings).

PROPERTY

- Pupils may not wilfully damage or vandalise any school property or equipment;
- Pupils may not litter on school grounds or in the school building;
- Pupils may not in any way abuse the property of others at any time;
- Pupils may not vandalise their own belongings.

MORALITY

- Pupils may not use expletives, vulgar or abusive language;
- Pupils may not cause emotional distress to others;

ATTENDANCE

- Pupils must attend school daily;
- Pupils must be punctual in all aspects;

ACADEMICS

- Pupils may not disrupt lessons in any way;
- Pupils may not violate the educator's right to educate or the other Learners' to learn.