Dear Parents

Greetings from the Playschool.

This last week has indeed been busy. Last Sunday the community celebrated Greek National Day on the SAHETI Sports grounds. Our Grade R's looked the part in their traditional clothes and participated in the march with pride.

On Tuesday we celebrated Human Right's Day with stories, songs and Discussion. Our Little Ones were captivated by the story on Nelson Mandela and were fascinated by the Children's Bill of Rights. They learnt about their rights and responsibilities.

Today we celebrated Greek National Day at school. Our festivities incorporated stories about our great heroes and songs. We enjoyed some delicious Greek national foods, played with Greek flags and enjoyed a cake with the flag on it.

LAMBATHES – EASTER CANDLES

‘Lambathes’ are special candles for Easter, which are given to children as gifts by their parents and God parents. These candles are used for Mid Night Mass on the Saturday night when we celebrate the resurrection of Christ.

These beautifully decorated candles will be on sale in the Playschool Perception area.

Forthcoming Events
